PRICE TWO CENTS

ASSEMBLY GIVES INGRAM A CHANCE

He Counters Hard Before Resolution to Probe State Departments Is Passed This Morning

HITS THE GOVERNOR HARD

Amendment Censuring Davidson for Taking $1,200 and Not Removing Stone Gets Into the Record

GO AFTER THE FRATERNITIES

Assembly Attack on State University Again Crops Out in Probe of Secret Societies

MADISON, Wis., June 5. (Special.)—A new development in the senate-assembly war occurred today when the assembly passed a resolution for an investigation by five assemblymen of the departments of state government. The resolution was aimed particularly at the insurance department.

Ingram presented a substitute, aimed at Governor Davidson, for not removing the state game warden, fire marshal and others accepting money contrary to the civil service law, during the Stephenson campaign. He was strong in his language about Davidson accepting $1,200 from the game warden for the campaign fund, in violation of the law.

The Ingram substitute was killed by a vote of 43 to 33, and then the Black resolution was passed 54 to 25.

The resolution by Culbertson for investigation of the fraternities of the university was passed by a strong vote.

The Stack resolution refers to the charges preferred by former Deputy Insurance Commissioner Waite against Commissioner Beedle, alleging unlawful charging and retaining of fees, refers to other charges against other departments in the capitol and provides that the speaker appoint five assemblymen to investigate such charges and report to the special session next January.

The Culbertson resolution describes the Greek letter fraternities and sororities as destructive of the democracy, which should exist in the university and calls upon the faculty to investigate and make recommendations to the legislature with a view to either abolishing the secret societies or eliminating the evils. Assemblyman Culbertson himself during his university days belonged to two fraternities, but declares that he has become convinced that their presence today is most unwholesome.

Among the important bills passed are:

1058 (Blaine). For county administrator to enforce inheritance tax laws. County to get 10 per cent of tax.

461A (Ditch). Authorize the state board of agriculture to purchase additional state fair lands.

423 A (Scott). Submission of city ordinances to people upon petition.

924A (Com.). Providing for the establishing of trade schools.

The general fish and game bill will be taken up by the assembly today, some time before noon. It developed at the meeting of the assembly yesterday afternoon that the G. A. R. men of the state were opposed to the opening of the fishing season before June 1. The date in the senate bill for the open season was May 25, but the assembly will attempt to amend this when the bill comes up for engrossment and passage later in the day.

A resolution to give policemen and firemen passes on street cars was killed, and the senate killed the bill to create the office of state printer.

WOMAN HUNT CONTINUES

CHICAGO, June 5.—The woman hunt continued today in the Clemons poisoning case. Two Chicago detectives went east last night on the trail of two women who it is believed can shed some light on Dr. Haldane Clemons's actions which will help the prosecution to convict him on the charge of murdering his wife. While the police carefully guard the names of the women it is said that one is being searched for in Michigan and the other in a city further east.

BEAM INDICTED

LIMO, O., June 5.—John W. Beam the colored attorney, was indicted for the murder in the first degree for the alleged killing of Mrs. Maud E. Ditz today.

WARLIKE NOTE IS HEARD IN EUROPE

German Navy League Openly Declares for Navy Strong Enough to Control England

ENGLISH ALL MUCH EXCITED

With German-Russian Conference at Hand Many Advise Precipitating War Rather than Wait

KIEL, June 5.—The strongest anti-English note yet heard in German semi-official circles dominated today's annual meeting of the German navy league under the presidency of Admiral Koester. All dissimulation was thrown aside and the delegates openly advocated the accelerated upbuilding of the German navy "to contest the present naval supremacy of England."

In nearly every utterance there was marked hostility to England and the resolutions that were adopted unanimously plainly favor the building of a German navy that will stand supreme in the world.

England Aroused
LONDON, June 5.—While details of the meeting of the German navy league at Kiel have not been received here the fact that the Germans have thrown off the cloak of secrecy openly admitting that the upbuilding of the German navy is to wrest from England the naval supremacy, has accentuated the bitterness of the British anti-German feeling.

Would Start War Quick
With Russia lined up alongside of Germany, Austria and Italy against England, the inclusion of France in the compact is confidently expected and there is a seeming disposition on the part of many influential Englishmen of favoring the plan of picking a quarrel with Germany at once and then sending the vast English fleet to wipe out the German navy before it can be made strong enough to defeat the English navy.

MRS. RUSTIN IS AMONG MISSING

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 5.—Attorney for Mrs. Grace How Rustin, of Omaha, Neb., instigator of a suit here for $75,000 life insurance carried by her husband, who met a mysterious death in Omaha last fall, is making an anxious search for his client.

In her petition Mrs. Rustin failed to state how her husband was killed and then the court ordered a new petition prepared, which it is now necessary for Mrs. Rustin to sign. The insurance companies claim in their answers that Dr. Rustin either committed suicide or entered into a conspiracy to have some one else kill him.

Mrs. Rustin is now believed to be in Europe, but cannot be located.

HARRIMAN SEEKS RUIN OF ENEMIES

NEW YORK, June 5.—Directors of the California Development company, one of the biggest irrigation concerns in the west, believe that Harriman's effort to hold up the stockholders' meeting is to give him time to get a decision in the New Jersey courts which will give him control of the company. The Harriman interests loaned the irrigation company considerable money once, then took charge of the company until the loan was paid. They sought to keep control but were ousted by the California courts.

THOMPSON'S NINE BEATS ST. MARY'S

The second team of St. Mary's school went down to defeat at the hands of the team representing Nels Thompson's clothing store this morning at the Hogan school grounds by the score of 9 to 8. The batteries Klenahs and Frelsinger for Nels Thompson; Stangle and Hackner for St. Mary's. Struck out by Klenahs, 3; by Stangle, 3. Bases on balls, off Klenahs, 4; off Stangle, 9.

PAYS DENTIST BILL WITH LOVE LETTER

HICAGO, June 5.—A love letter settled a $30 dentist's bill when presented in municipal court. F. P. Joyce was the dentist suing Miss Bella McBlaire for the bill. Miss McBlaire testified that he had often called at her home and urged her to give him the "pleasure of filling her teeth," free of cost. When he sent her the bill for $30, she says she wrote:

"Hella—I would rather send you a love letter than a bill."

The dentist's attorney asked that the suit be dismissed and his request was granted.

NATIONAL BALLOON RACES ON TODAY

Largest Balloons in World at Indianapolis for Start of the Great Aerial Event

COURSE IS NORTHEASTERLY

If Proper Air Currents Can Be Found Aeronauts Expect to Break Records

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—Tugging at their ballast ropes which hold them captive, nine balloon contestants in the two national races are ready for the start this afternoon. There was not an accident nor a bit of trouble in inflating the enormous bags and the rapidity of the work surprised the experienced aeronauts.

Government weather experts at the grounds declare that the balloon will at least start southeast. Experiments showing that there was at 1 p. m. a 22 mile an hour gale at an elevation of 1,000 feet. This, however, was an almost northerly breeze which would take the balloons due south—almost opposite to the direction that the aeronauts hoped to go—northeast. All of the contestants will maneuver for an air current that will send their balloons east or northeast.

The weather continues fair with moderate temperature.

The only hope of breaking a long distance record is in a northeasterly flight. Traveling in that direction would send the balloons into Canada where a distance of a thousand miles could be attained and a landing made safely. A thousand mile flight will break the world's record by 156 miles. The entries in the national championship long distance race are: Carl Fischer and Captain G. T. Bumbaugh of Indianapolis in the Indiana; Captain Baldwin of New York and Charles Walsh of Mt. Vernon, N. Y. in the Hoosier; A. H. Morgan and J. H. Wade, Jr., of Cleveland, in the Cleveland; Albert Bond Lambert and H. E. Honeywell of St. Louis, in the St. Louis III; John Barry and Paul McCullough of St. Louis, in the University City; A. Holland Forbes and Captain Harmon of New York, in the New York.

Prior to the national event three balloons will be sent off in a national handicap event to see which can stay up the longest. In this race the largest balloon in the world is entered—the Chicago, owned by C. Coy of Chicago, which holds 120,000 cubic inches of gas. When inflated the Chicago is as big as a twelve story building.

ROLLER SKATES HAVE RIGHT OF WAY

CHICAGO, June 5.—A Chicago magistrate has established a precedent in favor of roller skaters who are using the sidewalks in ever increasing numbers. Margaret Doyle, aged 15, skated over a policeman's toe.

Raging with pain the cop hauled her to the nearest patrol box and telephoned her arrest, then after having his toe attended to he appeared against the girl in court. Municipal Judge Griten first told Margaret to skate home, then he scolded the policeman for arresting her.

MYSTERIOUS AIR SHIP BUT A MIRAGE

IMPERIAL, Cal., June 5.—The airship that has mystified the residents of Imperial Valley appeared last evening at about twilight and for a few moments was clearly seen by a large number of persons. Then it changed into a row of tents and trees inverted against the sky and finally disappeared. Then the spectators decided it was not an airship at all, but a mirage. A few years ago before irrigation had brought much vegetation to the country mirages were common over the Salton Sea.

TEDDY AND PARTY IN THE THIRST BELT

(By Yarrington Dawson, Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)
KILABE, B. E. A., June 5.—With 125 gallons of water as part of the cargo to last the members during their two days march across the great "thirst belt" of the western part of the protectorate, the Roosevelt caravan set out at 1 o'clock this afternoon for its seven weeks stay in the Tumbwa district.

TAFT WON'T GO NORTH

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Taft told Representative Tawney of Winona, Minn., that he practically abandoned his proposed visit to Alaska next fall.

A PLAIN DUTY TONIGHT

HARVEY DEE BROWN
Famous Scientist and Lecturer Who Will Deliver an Address on the White Plague at the High School Auditorium Tonight

Tonight is THE night. Don't forget its importance. At the high school auditorium Harvey Dee Brown, famous lecturer and scientist, will tell the people of La Crosse all about three important things.

They are

- (1) Extent and cause of tuberculosis.
- (2) Prevention of tuberculosis.
- (3) Cure of tuberculosis.

In a word he is in the field for the Wisconsin anti-tuberculosis congress battling to wipe out forever a dread disease that is threatening at no distant date to exterminate mankind.

CATTLE STARVED ESCH'S AID ASKED

Humane Officer Will Try to Stop Improper Shipments to Chicago

Because young calves three and four months old, are shipped to the Chicago market alive and in stock cars together with grown cattle, and are placed on the cars here and in other points on Friday and left without food until the survivors are killed in Chicago packing houses on Monday or Tuesday of the succeeding week, Charles H. Berry, humane officer, will attempt to have legislation passed which will prohibit the practice.

Yesterday a specific instance was cited by a shipper who told the society that he was forced to take this way of shipping, on account of the high express rates on rough dressed veal. He said that when his car reached Chicago Monday at 11 o'clock four calves were dead and a number of others were so badly trampled that they would probably die from their injuries before they could be put out of misery.

Mr. Berry today laid the case before Congressman John J. Esch, by letter, and has also written the various humane officers throughout the northwest.

CUT IT OUT.

On page 7 of this issue there appears a table of food values which is the result of years of study and experiment by Prof. W. Earl Flynn, by courtesy of whom it is published in The Tribune for the first time. It is from the manuscript of Prof. Flynn's forthcoming book, which will be the most important contribution to the literature of health offered in the present century. Every reader of The Tribune should cut out this table and keep it for reference.

In last night's issue of The Tribune there appeared in the regular story of Prof. Flynn's work, near the bottom of the second column on the first page, "Flynn's Creed," which is the condensed gospel of living in health. This also is from the manuscript of Prof. Flynn's unpublished book; it is published by request of many La Crosse people who are interested in the great work being done here by Prof. Flynn. Cut it out and preserve it for reference.

kind. It costs more than war, it is more destructive than war, it is more terrible than war.

The evening may be warm; you may have other engagements; any number of things may present themselves to you as excuses for not attending this lecture.

Listen!
If you were at the side of a dying child, or brother, or wife, or husband, or other loved one, how you would wish that you had attended a similar lecture years ago, so that you might have warded off the coming of the White Plague now slowly dragging a dear one from your grasp!

If you do not go tonight, and some night in the future you sit watching the ebbing life of one dear to your heart who drifted into the clutches of this terrible disease while you helplessly watched its growth in fascinated horror, you will repent in your soul's bitterness that you did not take part in the battle against consumption, that you did not do your duty as a citizen, as a father or mother, as a Christian man or woman, by embracing every opportunity to study the malady and arm yourself to protect from its ravages those to care for whom is your personal obligation.

"Am I my brother's keeper?"

YOU ARE. Must I help "carry the white man's burden?" YOU MUST. These laws are divine, immutable. Who takes no part in life's duties will be found guilty of non-feasance in that high court in which final judgment shall descend upon all who share the joys and sorrows of a world wherein the discharge of obligations is the measure of true merit and lasting happiness. No duty confronts humanity today more urgent than the duty of fighting to a finish this good fight against mankind's most insidious and dreadful foe, the White Plague.

FLYNN TICKETS IN BIG DEMAND

Indications Are That Big Audience Will Greet the Great Specialist for Final Lecture

TEACHES NATURE'S WAY

Mr. Flynn Will Tell What He Eats and How He Keeps in Perfect Condition

TUESDAY'S PROGRAM
• How I train.
• What I eat.
• How I keep the face young.
• How I care for the hair.
• How I care for the eyes and teeth.
• How I developed my physique.
• How I keep the nerves in order.
• How I retain youthfulness.
• What exercise I take for special ailments.
• How to develop beautiful hands.
• Development of the chest and bust.
• Training for old people.
• Organization of the Hundred Year Club.

There has been a good demand for tickets for the Flynn lecture next Tuesday evening when the health specialist will make his final appearance before a La Crosse audience at the Methodist church. One of the points of unusual interest in this lecture will be his instructions on just what to eat and how to train the various vital organs of the body. Tickets are on sale at the Tribune office at 50 cents each and the first two hundred sold will be reserved in the front of the church, giving the early purchasers the advantage of being close to the speaker so that his demonstrations may more easily be seen.

Prof. Flynn's books will be sold Tuesday evening, giving complete instructions on Flynnism, with poses by Mr. Flynn. All those attending will also be given their choice of a face cream, hair tonic, or shampoo which is prepared under Mr. Flynn's special directions.

Flynnism has taken a deep hold upon the thinking classes in La Crosse and the belief is becoming general that Nature in her own grand way will provide and care for the human body, if her laws are obeyed.

LAUNCH DISASTER FATAL AT BERLIN

BERLIN, Wis., June 5.—The launch San Souci from Sauk City, went over the dam here Friday night with three occupants, L. T. Osborne, Baraboo; Frank New, Peoria; and Chas. Sladeck, Sauk City. Osborne and New were drowned. The party had left Sauk City for Oshkosh, coming down the Sauk river. At about nine o'clock they reached the fork here, on branch of which leads to the dam. They were unfamiliar with the route and chose the channel which led to their death. They perceived their error and tried to stop the boat. The reverse "killed" the engines and the boat drifted, striking the dam broadside and tipping over.

Sladeck was the only one saved having taken hold of a chain of the boat to keep the under current from dragging him down.

"It is due this senate of which I have but recently become a member to state that I have no personal knowledge of the facts upon which these cases are based."

AUSTIN, Texas, June 5.—Ed Lyons, a prize fighter, died today from the effects of the pounding given by Geo. Kelppe, in a go at which the sheriff, the chief of police and a county judge were spectators. There is great indignation today and the resignation of the peace officers may be demanded. Kelppe may be arrested. An inquest will be held today.

MR. DOLLIVER GOES AFTER MR. ALDRICH

Aldrich (About to Leave)—"I Have an Engagement!"
Dolliver: "I Want to Engage You Here!"

ALDRICH RESUMES HIS SEAT

But Dolliver's Hot Shot Soon Drives Rhode Islander From the Senate Chamber

LA FOLLETTE TAKES A HAND

Stirs Things Up in Night Session and Standpatters Are Badly Scarred in the Battle

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—A plain, straightforward talk was what Senator Dolliver of Iowa, one of the "progressive republicans" called his review in the senate today of the Aldrich speech of last night. Dolliver did some of his plainest talking when Aldrich, after the Iowa had been speaking a few minutes, started to leave the senate chamber. This brought from Dolliver an indignant protest against the Rhode Island senator's apparent determination not to listen to the answer to his argument.

"I have an engagement," explained Aldrich.

"I want to engage you here," shouted Dolliver.

He said Aldrich could not ignore his answer to the Rhode Island senator's speech last night without subjecting himself to serious moral consequences.

Aldrich then resumed his seat but within ten minutes he had slipped out.

Aldrich's "Defense"
At the night session Chairman Aldrich had replied to Mr. La Follette's assaults upon the work of the finance committee and made a general defense of amendments which he asserted were necessary to carry out the intent of the framers of the Dingley law.

Mr. Aldrich had said the committee's rates were lower than those intended by the Dingley law, although they might be higher than the rates under which certain goods are now admitted because of misinterpretation in the courts of the intent of the existing law.

Dolliver Shatters Answer
Dolliver said he desired to avoid any spirit of harshness in his speech and he would be the last man to say unkind things of Senator Aldrich.

He challenged Aldrich's assertion that the committee on amendments to the cotton schedule would affect only ten per cent of the cotton importations. Dolliver quoted Senator WAUSAU, Wis., June 5.—Wausau won today, making it three out of four with the La Crosse team and pulling the latter down to second place. It was the first time this season that the big pitcher has lost a game. It was not his fault at all. He pitched in good form, allowing only six hits, the same number that his team mates got off Lakoff. But the errors behind Romaine, although excusable because made on hard chances, came at critical times and cost heavily. Besides pitching a fine game, Lakoff received perfect support. Score: Wausau, 5; La Crosse, 2. Batteries—Lakoff and Johnson, Romaine and Klein. Umpire Roberge.

Superior, 3; Duluth, 2
SUPERIOR, Wis., June 5.—Superior played a fine article of baseball, backing up the grand pitching of Baertschi without a skip. Thorson also was in good form and the battle was a close one, with the locals barely nosing out their opponents. With recent additions to the team, Superior is now able to give a good account of itself and promise trouble for La Crosse and Winona next week. Score: Superior, 3; Duluth, 2.
Duluth, 2; Superior 3
Batteries—Baertschi and Clapper, Thorson and Mueller.

Winona, 1; Eau Claire, 1
WINONA, Minn., June 5.—Winona did not win Friday, but it averted a defeat and that was sufficient to restore it to the lead from which it was ousted last Sunday by La Crosse. As it was the locals played in good luck, the three errors behind Converse not being costly, and Eau Claire had no advantage through playing a perfect game. Both twirlers worked in their best style. Winona now goes on the road with a prospect of hard games ahead of it on its tour. Score: Winona, 1; Eau Claire, 1.
Eau Claire, 1; Winona, 0
Batteries—Converse and Moore; Schroeder and Benrud.

BIG FIELD MEET ON THIS AFTERNOON

Final Athletic Events of the High School Season Biggest of the Whole Year

Today is a gala day for the La Crosse high school students. This morning the baseball team closed the season with West Salem. This is the second contest of the season between the two squads, the former game resulting in a victory for the local boys. Olson and Dickens will constitute the battery for the home team. The second annual interstate field meet is being held on the fair grounds this afternoon. All the contestants from the ten schools have arrived and reported that they are all in excellent condition. The Menominee boys are considered favorites but the Sparta, La Crosse and Winona teams are also to be figured in capturing the honors of the day. The La Crosse boys are confident that the representatives from the local school will win, not by capturing a majority of first places but by getting a place in every event. The men capturing first places will be presented with handsome gold medals, second with medals of silver, and third with bronze. These trophies will be handed out at the reception which will be held in Elks hall this evening. The hall has been decorated for the occasion and the affair promises to be a great success. Kreutz's orchestra will furnish the music.

Both of the teams have won a game apiece and the contest tomorrow will be the deciding one. Nonstad and Nosky will be the battery of the Noxalls, while Paul Smith will do the twirling for the La Crescent team. The game starts at 3 o'clock.

Detroit won from Boston, 5 to 0, by bunching hits and taking advantage of Boston's misplays. Mullin pitched an excellent game and scored his tenth straight victory of the season. Schaefer and Wagner were forced out of the game by being slightly injured and Lord was spiked, but not badly.

All other big league games were called off on account of the rain. The Cubs spend the day talking over that $10,000 bonus and it was finally decided to split it up in lots of $666.66 for each player.

MEN PAST FIFTY IN DANGER.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged, prostrate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostrate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." STANFORD FAVORITE IN BIG TRACK MEET

CHICAGO, June 5.—What promises to be the most thrilling intercollegiate meet since 1905 will be held on Marshall field today. New records are expected to be made and several surprises are looked for in many events. Leland Stanford, Illinois and Chicago are the leading figures in the meet, Stanford being favorite on account of records already made this year.

Stanford and Chicago have but few men to rely on for points, Illinois has a wealth of material at its call.

The mile run will be the feature of the day. Dohmen, of the Badgers, is the favorite. The half mile should go to Miller of Stanford, who took it with east last year. The Maroon rooters see nobody but Stophlet in the two mile, and Crawley in both hurdle races.

In the preliminary quarter mile race yesterday Wymann and Miller of Stanford romped home in their heats and but for Hanley, of Illinois, were the fastest men in the event. Wymann's time was :51, fastest made.

Other universities represented in the meet are Minnesota, Purdue, Indiana, Western Reserve, Colorado, Northwestern and Notre Dame.

OLD SETTLER AT REST.

The late Putnam Fuller of Lewis Valley was buried from his residence there Thursday. Quite a number of his old time friends from La Crosse were present at the services. Mr. Fuller was one of the old settlers of La Crosse county. The same pastor who married him, and later officiated at his golden wedding, presided at the last sad rites over his bier.

DEBATE UNION IN REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday delegates to the classis of the German Reformed church at St. John's Reformed church, Fourth and Market streets, celebrated the 400th anniversary of the reformer, John Calvin. The services were conducted mainly by Rev. Friedli of St. Paul, and Rev. A. Muhleimer.

This morning one of the delegates made the motion that the German Reformed church should, with the Presbyterian church, form a federal union. This proposed union has been agitated throughout the United States for the past few years, and is one of the greatest questions confronting the church at the present time. The question was debated the entire morning and finally laid on the table until tomorrow.

The following classis committees were appointed:

Religious service—Rev. J. Lemke, Rev. J. Rosenow, John Freehof.
General synod—Rev. J. Friedli, Rev. G. D. Elliker, J. Schild.
Northwest synod—Rev. J. C. Ochsner, Rev. H. Heusser, H. Bergman.
Religion and statistics—Rev. E. Vornholt, Rev. G. D. Elliker, S. Hansmeier.

Try It on The Hills

Test this car at half speed on a hill or sand road where power and every ounce of it is needed. Notice how steadily and powerfully it pulls when running slowly under load. The capacity of the Rambler engine for doing this extra work is most noticeable at low engine speeds. This is because of the offset crank shaft.

Rambler
The Car with the Offset Crank Shaft

All that power which in other engines is lost through friction on the bearings and cylinder walls, is added to the driving force by the Rambler offset crank shaft. It reduces friction, eliminates hammer on bearings, gives more power. The straight-line drive delivers the power direct and with least frictional loss to the rear axle. Let us demonstrate these features and the silence and comfort of this car. Let us call at your home, and take you to your place of business some morning in a Rambler.

This picture is to remind you to attend the anti-tuberculosis mass-

self, to your family and friends, to humanity in general, to understand this dread disease and know how to combat it. No duty is imposed upon citizens of La Crosse with greater insistence than that of attending this lecture by the noted scientist and
speaker, Harvey Dee Brown.

THE CHAUTAUQUA

While some time intervenes between this date and the opening of the La Crosse Chautauqua, which is set for June 28, it seems worth while to anticipate the event now with a summary of the offerings the program affords. It may be said at the outset that they are most attractive,
that they are nicely selected, not only as to the excellence of each separate number, but also with reference to variety and timeliness of topics.

The inspiring optimism of Dr.
Monroe Markley finds eloquent expression in "Heart Strings and Harp Strings," the buoyancy of the man's soul reaching sympathetic chords in the hearts of his hearers. He comes as an uplift for the despondent, a tonic for the pessimist, a ray of sunshine to illuminate the dark corners
that lurk in every human nature.

"Lop Sided Folk" is the way Dr.
George R. Stuart, most versatile and forceful of chautauqua speakers, describes his lecture. Known as a perfect composite of Dr. Talmage and Sam Jones, a master of the platform,
this man overlaps pathos and humor
until tears and smiles mingle.

Henry F. Cochems, the new Chautaqua star whose eloquence swept to its feet the tired Chicago convention in the last hour of its life, and after it had refused to be stirred by anything excepting the name of Roosevelt, whose oratory fired that great assemblage to a riot of enthusiasm, who electrified thousands by his masterful presentation of the candidacy for the presidency of Robt. M. La Follette, is a number on the program which will leave a bookmark in memory's pages.

Champ Clark, Missourian, who is minority leader in the house of representatives is known the world over
for his wit and his keen perception,
as well as for his eloquence, offers
in "The United States in The 20th Century" an hour of instruction and entertainment which folk cannot afford to miss.

Then there is Frederick E. Hopkins, a preacher and teacher of the highest type, Judge George D. Alden, master of epigram, Dr. S. Parks Cadman, known as "America's greatest preacher," Allen A. Tanner, a pastor who has worked in great shops
of the big industrial concerns to get to the bottom and the truth of our capital and labor problem, Congressman Charles B. Landis, known for his power and eloquence to every reader of the newspapers and the Congressional Record, and Prof.
George R. Laird, a realist of the aggressive and compelling type.

Supplementing this splendid list
of speakers, there is offered to public attention "Mrs. Brown and The Chicago Boys Choir," "The Commonwealth Male Quartette," the Redpath Seton Indians, Hal Merton, magician
and ventriloquist, one of the greatest concert trios of the century, The Steele Concert Company, Royal English and Bell Orchestra, Royal Hungarian Orchestra and other attractions of equal merit.

This is enough to show that the program to be rendered here is one of the strongest and best selected ever afforded in a chautauqua, and
The Tribune bespeaks for it the patronage which the generous and excellent contributions to our entertainment deserve.

MORRIS IS RIGHT

There will be a great outcry on the part of the corporation press
against the action of Senator Morris and his progressive colleagues in the senate in defeating the Twesme
bill ostensibly drawn for the purpose of segregating the parties in the primaries. In thus protesting,
these papers are doing their masters'
work; they are fighting against that freedom which comes to the laboring man through the secret ballot, they are reaching out to strangle the dreaded and ever-growing independent vote.

Under the Twesme law it would have been possible for bystanders
to know for which party every man voted. This arms the corporation or person who has ordered employees to vote a certain way on pain of loss of employment. Under the present method, workmen can vote as they please, because the employer cannot tell how they voted, and his threat
is unavailing.

The independent candidate, too,
finds advantage in supporting whom he pleases on any ticket. If he votes for certain candidates on the democratic ticket in the primary, and the candidates for whom he votes, or part of them, are defeated, and he thinks better of the republican ticket, he can vote for the latter, or vice versa. The independent voter is a growing menace to such things as Cannonism and Aldrichism. The "interests" want it herded back into
"party lines," within reach of the
lash, as of old.

We believe the people of this state,
by a large majority, will sustain the position of Senator Morris, and thank him heartily for his splendid fight against the re-imposition upon the public of a political iniquity.

TAFT FORCED TO ACT

Commenting caustically upon the resentment shown by some senators
of the Aldrich stripe over the action of the president in seeking information about the tariff upon his own account, instead of taking their word for it, the Chicago Record-Herald says:

Why should Secretary MacVeagh
and his chief, President Taft, be so anxious to secure data bearing on the cost of various articles of consumption under the proposed tariff
as compared with that under the Dingley rates? Certain standpatters have been watching the preparation for executive use of tables and lists
with ill-concealed alarm and almost comical perplexity.

Well, a glance at the senate record of even the last few days will suggest the explanation of the strange activity in question. Suppose the president should seek to make up his mind as to the sort of tariff
that congress is about to put up to him on the strength and basis
of senatorial opinions of it, without
the aid of independent information?
Where would the effort land him?

Senator La Follette says that the tariff does not contain a single rate
which can be justified on the principle proclaimed in the republican platform. Senator Nelson says that revision downward has gone glimmering. Senator Lodge says that no one ever held out the hope of downward revision, and that the bill simply readjusts the rates regardless of anybody's desire for reductions or increases. Senator Lorimer admits that the people of the middle west

want and were promised revision
downward, but he cheerfully adds
that the Payne bill scrupulously kept that promise. Senator Aldrich smiles and says little, but he marks
up rates whenever he can, scorn-
ing no support from zealous democratic "converts" and declining no
dickers that help standpattism
along.

And so to the end of the chapter.
The people have their own impression as to what sort of revision they are now witnessing in the senate, but the spectacle is not one that is conducive to clear, honest agreement
even as to the main facts.

With the Babel before him, President Taft, conscious of his own pledges and interpretation of the tariff plank, must sorely feel the need of little figures that do not lie
and that are intelligible to the uti-
mate consumer, the man who pays
the bills.

The way to revise downward is to make reductions. Since the stand-patters will not admit this simple truth, they must be confronted with tell-tale tables that brook no sophistical constructions.

It has become sufficiently plain that Senator Aldrich does not propose that there shall be revision downward. It has been demonstrated that he and certain of his colleagues
propose to trick the public by dishonest statements, in order to successfully put through their bill.
President Taft is pledged, by his party platform and by his personal word, to revision downward. No alternative has been left him but to go into the facts for himself.

The governor of this state, if he puts his ear to the ground, must know that an overwhelming majority of the lawyers and people generally in the Sixth judicial district,
are for E. C. Higbee for circuit judge.
If he is discerning, he will see that it is no reflection on that bright young lawyer, Robert Cowie, to say that a man who has attained the distinction in his profession enjoyed by Mr. Higbee possesses in a higher degree those attainments most desirable in a judge. Mr. Higbee, moreover, has been kind to the governor.
With the mass of the progressives
here against him, he was sustained by Mr. Higbee in the gubernatorial fight three years ago. He differed with the governor in relation to the Ekern-Twesme fight, but a governor
should be big enough to appreciate that independence in a man which prevents him becoming a blind tool in the hands of others. If this appointment be made strictly upon
merit, the next judge in this district
will be E. C. Higbee.

The news that certain men have been seizing the crops and sun fish
out of Pettibone lagoon is most provoking. The park is the mecca of hundreds of families whose children angle from its banks. To them
the catching of even one of these little fishes is joy supreme. The man that loots this lake, when the locality abounds in "snaps" for poachers,
is a vandal.

portions was on the witness stand in the Superior court before Judge Weir
the other day and she made such a good witness for the plaintiff that the attorney for the defense planned to throw "cold water" on what
she said by finding fault with her character.

SENATOR-ELECT WILLIAM LORIMER OF ILLINOIS
HIS WIFE AND THREE OF HIS CHILDREN.Very Bad Cough.
Pe-ru-na Stopped It.

DAUGHTER OF MRS. J. M. BROWN.
Mrs. J. M. Brown, Dunnegan, Mo., writes: "My little daughter, three years old, was troubled with a very bad
cough which remained after an attack
of catarrhal fever, which was a great deal worse at night."

"She would wake up out of her sleep
and cough until I feared she could not stand it."

"Nothing that we gave her seemed to do her any good. I then concluded to send for Dr. Hartman's book entitled
"The Ills of Life," which I promptly received."

"I at the same time commenced giving her Peruna. She has taken one bottle
in all, through which she has obtained
a complete cure."

"She also since her birth was troubled with indigestion, but since she has taken Peruna she can eat almost any kind of food without any bad results.
"She is now as well and happy as any little girl can be. When our friends say how well she looks, I tell them Peruna did it."

"I shall always be a friend of Peruna,
as I consider it the best medicine for coughs and indigestion we have ever tried, and will recommend it to any one similarly afflicted."

MRS. LYDIA J. SPOONER, Santa Monica, Cal., writes that they are never without Peruna in the home, that they find it the finest family remedy
they have ever used.

"Let me see, you have been arrested, haven't you?" the attorney asked on cross-examination.

"Don't care to scuss thawt mat-
tah," she replied shortly.

"But you must answer the question," the attorney told her. "The law requires you to answer whether you care to or not."

"Well I ain't been 'rested but once," she said reluctantly.

"Tell us what that was for."

"Now, look a heah," said the witness, getting angry, "do you think I'm going to tell you all my private business? I guess not."

"I have the right to know, and you must tell me," the lawyer persisted, and Judge Weir instructed the witness that she would have to answer.

"I's 'rested for lickin' my husband," she said, her eyes flashing.

"That so?" said the attorney with great satisfaction. "What is your husband's name?" And she told him.

"And what is his business?"
"He's a prize fightah," she said
and the cross-examination abruptly ended amid general merriment.—In-

A Squelcher for Snobs
Mrs. William Ellis Corey was describing at a luncheon at the Plaza,
the Paris school where, with the help
of Isadora Duncan and Jean De Reszke, she trains little children for the stage.

"I think such work," said Mrs.
Corey, "is better than a life of mere social frivolity. American society,
you know, even the best of it, is so apt to be snobbish. So often, after listening to the twaddle at a tea or a reception, I feel like getting up to go with old Omar Fitzgerald's remark."

"Fitzgerald, the translator of the Rubaiyat, called one night at the house where a very snobbish conversation was going on. He sat an hour in an uncomfortable silence, he wanted to talk about poetry and music, plays and pictures, but instead he had to listen to snobbish
boasting about what the duke had
said, and the baron had answered,
and how gracious the princess had been."

"Finally Fitzgerald rose to go. He shook hands with his hostess, and then he turned to the assembled guests and said sadly, shaking his head:

"I once knew a lord, too, but he's dead."—Rochester Herald.

our barracks we have the tallest
soldier ever seen.

is he?

he is compelled to kneel when he wants to scratch his head!—Lippin-

A Bonanza
A certain man had a disastrous experience in gold mine speculation.
One day a number of colleagues were discussing the subject of speculation
when one of them said to this speculator, "Old chap, as an expert, give us a definition of the term 'bonanza.'"
A "bonanza," replied the experienced man with emphasis, "is a hole in the ground owned by a champion liar!"—Pick-Me-Up.

Important Court Decisions

ORAL BET IS NOT PROHIBITED.
The New York statute which provides that any person engaged in poolselling or bookmaking, or who receives or forwads any money bet
or offered to be bet by or for any other person, or who sells pools, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, was construed in People v. McLaughlin, 113
New York Supplement, 306. Relator was charged with violation of that section by receiving $5 as the result of an oral bet upon a horse race.

The New York Supreme Court
thought the Legislature designed to prohibit bookmaking and poolselling
whether done through agents, by correspondence, or personally, and that the statute had no reference to the case of a bet made between indi-

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear
if the Advice of This La Crosse Citizen Is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches
and pains.
Most times 'tis the kidney's fault.
Backache is really kidney ache.
That's why Doan's Kidney Pills
cure it.

Many La Crosse women know this.
Read what one has to say about
it:
Mrs. Katherine Loth, 421 Vine
St., La Crosse, Wis., says: "I cheerfully endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, as I know from personal experience that they are a splendid remedy. Two years ago my back ached almost constantly and I had bearing-down pains in my loins. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured
a box at Ehart's drug store. It was not long before I was entirely free
from backache and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,
New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—
and take no other.

There was a loud crash against the wall of the house, and, as the door rattled, thin streams of water squirteed under the canvas. A look of fear came into Mrs. Dowsett's face.

"'Tis nowt," the man said, with a cheery laugh. "Twill all drain off into th' big ditch behind, and there's eight hundred acres of land for it to spread itself in. I'm thinkin'
we needn't have moved owt but the carpet."

"But the wall, Sam," she muttered, "if she goes—I ain't afeared. I'm thinkin' of that poor lass upstairs.
God send she sleep sound through all this."

TENTS ARE BEING ERECTED

Kline Has Trouble With the Road Over Animal Show
and it May Not Be Unloaded HereActive work on the erection of the tents and other structures with the Kline Carnival company began this morning. Most of the shows are here and everything will be ready for the opening Monday evening. Mr.
Kline carries with him about 200 people, all of whom are here.Mr. Kline wishes to announce that he has secured Dickey's Famous Wild West and Indian Congress, one of the best on the road, and will have
it show on the North side next week.
He has also secured Miss Ella Ewing,
the glantess from Missouri, who is 8 feet and 4 inches tall. There is a probability that the animal show will not be seen here because of trouble with the railroad company.
Mr. Kline had paid for their transportation and the company refused
absolutely to move the animal cars.
They at last decided to move the cars and charge the carnival company for freight when the show arrives in this city. In that case, Mr.
Kline says, he will not unload the show at this place.The carnival includes the following attractions: Alice, the wonder;
the Human Rollette Wheel; the animal show, with the only tiger in the world that rides horseback; the Oriental Theater; the Aztec Indian;
Elma, the largest girl in the world;
the Glass Blowers; the Little Russian Midget, and the shows mentioned above.

JAMES M. BYRNE DIES OF PARALYSIS

James M. Byrne, brother of the late Chief H. H. Byrne, expired at his home at 231 Mill street, at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon following a second stroke of paralysis.
About a year and a half ago he suffered the first stroke of paralysis and was confined to his home for a long time and had been an invalid ever since. Several days ago he suffered the second stroke and from that time his condition grew rapidly
worse, the end coming yesterday afternoon.The deceased was born at Shullsburg, Wis., in 1854. He came to this city about 25 years ago and for many years was connected with the north side saw mills. He is survived by a widow and five children. They are George of Milwaukee, John of Hanover, Ill., Mabel, Elva and Mrs.
Maxwell Burton of this city. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. S. J. O'Brien of Shullsburg. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

LIGHTNING ENTERS OVER PHONE WIRES

The residence occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Heslip at 2130 Wood street, was struck by lightning last Thursday, the bolt entering along the telephone wires, damaging the moulding, the wall paper and then going out the door and damaging the porch to some extent. Mrs. Heslip, who was in the house at the time, was stunned by the shock, but not injured.Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse
the system. It is safe and sure.They who have done least to prevent sin always want to do the most in punishing it.

TRAMP KILLED IN EAST YARDS TODAY

Thrown Under Freight in Effort to Board it Near
the Grand Crossing

DIES AFTER AN OPERATION

Unknown Victim Taken to Hospital and Leg Is Cut Off, But Death
FollowsWhile attempting to board the Milwaukee wayfreight at Grand Crossing, which leaves the East yards
about 6:50 o'clock in the morning,
an unknown man was thrown under the wheels and his left leg was badly mangled below the knee. The crew of the wayfreight were not aware of the tragedy and did not stop. The towelman, who saw the accident,
telephoned to the Milwaukee passenger station and an engine was sent out for the injured man. A companion of the man accompanied the engine crew back to the station
where the ambulance was waiting.
He was at once ordered to the St.
Francis hospital by Dr. Sulter. The investigation at the hospital revealed a limb that was crushed to pulp between the knee and ankle. The amputation, which was performed by Dr. Wolf, was decided upon as the only means of possibly saving the man's life.The man died following the amputation, the end coming about 11:30 o'clock this morning. Nothing was found which would identify him.He evidently was an Australian and was accompanied by a companion. No one seemed to know very much about the accident and nothing could be obtained from the companion, as he was barely able to make himself understood in the English language. They were, from their appearance, working men and claimed that they were beating their way west in search of work.You may know how heaven regards money when you see the people who have it.

Managers for three years — Mrs. N. D. Allen, Mrs. Henry Gund, Mrs. G. Van Steenwyk, Mrs. A. Platz and Mrs. Bradfield.

During the year twenty-seven persons have been received and cared for at the home. At the present time there is a family of twenty-three, six adults and seventeen children. These children have been received from destitute homes, immoral homes and from homes that have been broken up by sickness and death. Two of the elderly women have been in poor health all winter. The children have been very well the most of the time. The matron, Mrs. Jones, is doing excellent work.

The donations at Thanksgiving, Christmas and for the Pount social were very generous. At Christmas time, Mrs. Easton's children furnished and trimmed a Christmas tree, which gave a great deal of pleasure. During the year the children were given a trolley ride and picnic at Myrick park by Miss Edwards. Mrs. Homer Hart entertained the children at her home with a Christmas tree, games and refreshments.

LA CROSSE GIRL DIES AT DUBUQUE

Miss Ethel Reinohl Is Victim of Spinal Disease After Only a Short Illness

The sad intelligence of the death of Miss Ethel Reinohl reached friends in La Crosse yesterday morning. Miss Reinohl was a resident of La Crosse until five weeks ago when she accepted a position in a Dubuque bank. About three weeks ago Miss Reinohl was forced to resign her position temporarily after a sudden attack of spinal meningitis. Physicians did all in their power to bring Miss Reinohl back to health, but the end came Thursday at 4 o'clock p. m.

Miss Reinohl was but twenty years old, and the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Reinohl, 1319 South Fifth street. Mr. Reinohl is a well known conductor on the Southern Minnesota division of the C. M. and St. Paul railroad.

Besides being accomplished in both vocal and instrumental music, Miss Reinohl was loved by all who knew her for her noble character.

The funeral took place at Dubuque this afternoon, the remains now resting in St. James cemetery in that city.

QUEEN NEAR DEATH IN CARRIAGE WRECK

THE HAGUE, June 5.—Queen Wilhelmina and Prince Consort Henry had a narrow escape from serious injury today when the carriage in which they were being driven to the church to attend the christening of their infant daughter, the Princess Juliana, collided with another vehicle.

The street was crowded at the time, all seeking to do honor to the baby princess and a scene of wild confusion followed. No one was injured, though the queen was severely shaken up and the christening was delayed for an hour.

The little princess was not in the carriage as she followed twenty minutes later in the royal gift coach drawn by six horses.

All the royal relatives attended the christening.

DIRECT LINE OF BOATS TO NORWAY

Upon the great number of tourists who travel between the United States and the Scandinavian countries every year the need of a shorter and quicker ocean route is making itself felt, and steps are now being taken toward the raising of sufficient capital and the interesting of prospective stockholders on both sides of the water to make the plan of a more direct route possible. An active interest in the enterprise is being taken by the Scandinavians in this country and the arrival of Capt. West from Norway show that those in the fatherland are also desirous of getting the new line.

Capt. West arrived from Bergen some time ago and has been active in arousing the interest of influential parties here. His latest efforts, which have been in the Twin cities have met with great success, and it is evident that enough capital can be raised to launch the new company.

Thousands of people travel between the United States and the Scandinavian countries every year. Every ship brings a large number of immigrants to this country and every outgoing vessel takes an almost equally large number of people returning to their native land. The present routes are indirect and necessitate long delays in England, which would be eliminated by the proposed route. Bergen, on the western coast of Norway is considered the possible terminus of the line, because of its fine harbor and the interest which is being taken in the undertaking by the people of that city.

Capt. West states that four liners will be necessary to start with, and hopes that these lines will be among the most modern of present day ocean liners.

It will be necessary for the company to demonstrate that its ships and hopes that these liners will be and from the Scandinavian countries on schedule time before Uncle Sam will allow them to carry the mails which are now being carried by other lines.

WERE STRIKERS SOLD?

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 5.—After the striking trolley men had voted to return to work early today, a number of political agitators started a report that their leader, C. O. Pratt, had sold them out. Some of the men refused to go to work unless, after a conference with Pratt, they were assured the rumor was for political purposes as the primaries are on today. The cars are running.

CURED ITCHING PAINFUL HUMOR

Which had Spread Over Face, Body and Arms—Swellings were as Large as a Dollar—When they Broke, Sores would Not Heal—Suffered 3 Years.

MADE SOUND AND WELL BY 3 SETS OF CUTICURA

"My trouble began about three years ago with little black swellings scattered over my face and neck. They would disappear but they would leave little black scars that would itch at times so I couldn't keep from scratching them. Larger swellings would appear in the same place and they were so painful I could hardly bear it and my clothes would stick to the sores. The first doctor I went to said the disease was scrofula, but the trouble only got worse and spread. By this time it was all over my arms and the upper part of my body in big swellings as large as a dollar. It was so painful that I could not bear to lie on my back at night. The second doctor pronounced my disease inflammation of the lymphatic glands. He stopped the swellings, but when they would break the places would not heal. He tried everything that he could but to no effect. He said I might be cured but it would take a long time. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies and used them according to directions and in less than a week some of the places were nearly well. I continued with the Cuticura Remedies until I had used three sets, and now I am sound and well. The disease lasted three years and from the time it commenced until I was cured. Before Christmas something broke out on my seven year old brother's hands in the form of large sores. I tried everything I could think of but to no effect until I happened to think of Cuticura and one application cured him. Also, not long ago, my sister got a bad burn on her ankle. I have been using Cuticura on that and it gave her scarcely any trouble. O. L. Wilson, Puryear, Tenn., Feb. 8, 1908."

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap, gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment and mild doses of Cuticura Pills, afford immediate relief and point to a speedy cure of torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scalp and blood of infants, children and adults, when all else fails. THRONGS ATTEND FULLER FUNERAL

Citizens of Lewis Valley Mourn Much Loved Citizen Whose Death Has Shocked Community

MINDORO, Wis., June 5.—(Special.)—The funeral of A. P. Fuller which was held at his late home in Lewis Valley Thursday was one of the largest ever held in that section of the country. His long residence there and wide acquaintance brought friends from far and near to pay their last respects to him. The services were conducted by Rev. Murphy of Delafield, Wisconsin, former pastor of the Presbyterian church at North Bend, and an intimate friend of the family. Many beautiful floral tributes were in evidence. The choir was composed of Miss Ines Mulford and Meta Lang of La Crosse, Percy Sacia and Thomas Davis of Mindoro with George Sisson presiding at the organ. Pallbearers were James Wilson, David Barclay, John Tracy, James Forest, Fred Roberts, and Perry Gavin. B. B. Mercereau of West Salem in charge.

Biography

A. P. Fuller was born in Alleghany county, N. Y., in 1827. When nine years of age he moved with his parents to Crawford county, Pennsylvania, he came to La Crosse county in October, 1853 and settled in Lewis Valley on the farm where he died Tuesday morning June 1st. He was married to Laura D. Tower May 31st, 1855. She, together with three chil-

Fel Deep Sorrow

The sudden death of Mr. Fuller has cast a gloom over this entire community. He was one of the best known and most deservedly popular men in Lewis Valley and his taking away will be sincerely mourned by all who knew him. While his mature years, in the nature of things would indicate that he was nearing life's journey's end, yet, his rugged constitution and vigorous activity up to within a few days of his death were full of promise that several years of usefulness were yet before him, yet, we are thankful that so good a man as he was spared so many years to us all.

Universally Loved

His aged wife who has shared his companionship for 54 years said but yesterday that every day she lived with him she learned to love and respect him more. So it was with all: to know him was to love and respect him. Without a vestige of malice, envy or uncharitableness, full of the milk of human kindness; broad and liberal in his views on all subjects of public interest; great hearted and with ready sympathy for all who needed it, he had no enemy on earth and all who knew him were glad to call him friend.

Mr. Fuller's death will leave a sad void in this neighborhood, it will sadden all who loved him well. A good and true man has gone from among us but his memory will be cherished in the hearts of his friends while they live.

Smoot that it would affect 70 per cent.

The Iowa senator advised his colleagues that they had better go to their constituents and tell them that they had increased duties in the cotton schedules rather than to say that the duties had not been increased.

"The American people," he said, "are willing to be robbed but they are not willing to be flimflammed." He declared it was ridiculous to claim there were no increases. He read statements from importers and manufacturers declaring that rates proposed in the Aldrich bill in some cases were higher than those of the existing law. He then referred to the exhaustive speech on the schedule recently delivered by Senator Smoot of Utah, a member of the finance committee. He quoted from Smoot's remarks to prove his contention that rates had been raised in the pending bill and also ridiculed some of the arguments advanced therein.

Laughs at Mr. Aldrich

Discussing the claim made by the finance committee that the intent of the Dingley act had been set aside by the decision of the court, Dolliver declared there were apparently two Dingley laws in evidence, "one on the statute books and one existing only in imagination of Senator from Rhode Island.

The law in the statutes, he said, was not taken as the standard by the finance committee but instead the interpretation of it in the mind of an appraiser who was turned out for incompetency in his administration of law. "This man, who was too much interested with the cotton manufacturers, had made a ruling by which cotton cloths were taxed sixty per cent as Etamines."

This ruling had been overruled by Judge Leveries yet was being referred to as one of the decisions by which the whole Dingley law and the intent of congress was claimed to have been circumvented.

Clash With Penrose Avoided

A serious conflict between La Follette and Penrose was for a time feared yesterday when La Follette arose to answer attacks made upon him in his absence.

"As to the remarks of the senator from Pennsylvania," he said, "I would suggest that he would render an important service to the country and to his state if he would account for the way he spends his time when absent from this body than in any effort to make an account for my time."

Sitting upright and leaning forward, Mr. Penrose gave close attention to every word of the senator from Wisconsin. The possibility of a clash between the two caused their colleagues to shift their eyes from one to the other.

"I might add," continued the senator from Wisconsin, "that no man could undertake to account for the whereabouts of the senator from Pennsylvania without transgressing the rules of the senate, and I do not."

Said He Corrected It

Mr. Penrose, interrupting, referred to an article in a magazine published by the senator from Wisconsin as misrepresenting himself and Pennsylvania. Reading the article complained of Mr. Penrose was promptly answered by Mr. La Follette, who said the statements were taken from a newspaper, and when denied by that publication were promptly withdrawn by his own magazine.

Mr. La Follette then proceeded with his analysis of the tariff bill, illustrating his remarks with samples that he said had been procured through the chief examiner of the New York custom house. Mr. La Follette explained the difference in duties carried by the pending bill and those imposed by the Dingley law with the purpose of showing increases.

Disease Chart.

That diseases can be cured by foods has been demonstrated very clearly, but do not argue from this fact that the other assistants—fresh air, water, exercise, faith—are not as necessary. Obeying one of nature's laws does not exempt us from obeying the others. The closer we follow nature, the more quickly we gain the end—perfect health. We consider this chart only suggestive. It is neither profound nor exhaustive in its scope. The whole sum and substance of the chart is contained in the following:

SHERIFF LEAVES TO GET HOWARD

Certified copy of judgment and an order to the warden of the state penitentiary at Waupun releasing James Howard to the custody of the sheriff of La Crosse county, were today turned over to Sheriff William

Duncan by Howard's attorney, Fred H. Hartwell of this city, and Mr. Duncan will leave at once for their prison to secure his charge.

Howard was committed to prison for the alleged burglary of a school house and store at Mindoro. The case was appealed, however, and the supreme court reversed the verdict of the lower court on an error.

When Howard is brought back to La Crosse he will be liable to arrest by the federal authorities, as it is alleged that the postoffice at Mindoro was also burglarized and stamps as well as funds belonging to the government were taken.

ERIE, Pa., June 5.—The New York to Seattle endurance run was held up for a few minutes here Friday when Ray Sheets, driver of the pilot car, was arrested at the Reed House by Policeman Pinney, in a charge of violating the speed laws of the town. He was fined $25.

JOHNNY KLING HAS CONSENTED AT LAST

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 5.—Hold out Johnny Kling, the famous catcher of the Cubs, has at last buried the hatchet. Six thousand dollars could not be overlooked and he stated last night that he would join the Cubs before July 1.

Kling received a telegram yesterday from Murphy offering him $6,000. He wired Murphy that he would return providing Murphy concedes a certain little demand which Kling feels sure the Cubs' president will do.

Kling said today: "There is no doubt but that I will soon join the Cubs. Murphy made me a flattering offer and I wired that I would accept if Chance saw fit to order me to report."

DIAZ DISCOURAGES RACING IN MEXICO

LO SANGELES, Cal., June 5.—There is gloom among the racing fraternity here today. Word has reached here from San Diego that President Diaz, of Mexico, decided that he will not sanction the proposed race track at Tia Juana, because he thinks that such action might be unfriendly to California, a state of a friendly power. A high Mexican official said that Diaz would do nothing to encourage sport on the Mexican border which has been barred by the United States.

This news did not halt the promoters of the new track and they expect no trouble in going ahead with the plant and conducting racing as planned.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF "HIGH" DEBATORS

In the church parlors of the Congregational church last evening, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, the annual banquet of the Lincoln Douglas and the Wendell Phillips debating societies was held, the affair proving a success in every way. There were about 125 guests present. Toastmaster William Stevenson in an opening speech gave a brief history of the debating work as developed in the local high school and explained the purpose of the gathering.

Edward Mable gave "The History of Debating in the La Crosse High School," telling of the difficulties which were encountered in the organization of the first debating society.

Earl Brandenburg talked on the subject of "High School Ideals." Howard Jones gave a short talk on "The Value of Debating."

Dr. Edward Evans gave an im-

Rudolph Schlabach spoke on "The Future of Debating." Oscar Swennes in his talk spoke of the help that the fair sex of the school were to the debaters and urged them to arouse all the enthusiasm along these lines which they possibly could.

Sivvald Stavrum as a member of the high school alumni spoke on the subject "The Alumna."

The last toast on the program was given by Arthur Gelatt on the work of Prof. Schubert, and how he had under exceptional difficulties started a debating society in the school and had given the pupils who were interested, the first rudiments of public speaking. The toast was entitled "Farewell," as Mr. Schubert will leave the school to take up his law practice at the end of the school term.

AUDITORS HERE TO INSTALL SYSTEM

J. Gordon Steele and William A. Frame of the J. Gordon Steele & Co. of Minneapolis, Minn., are in the city to look over the new system of bookkeeping as decided by the council last April.

The man will be here a few days during which time the regular semi-annual audit will be made. They will return before July and devise the new system, which will displace the present one installed by Wendell and Green several years ago. The new method including two audits will cost the city $1,000, which is considerable cheaper than the old system besides being much more simplified.

INDUSTRIAL LA CROSSE

SEPARATOR FACTORY A BIG CONCERN

The recent Pure Food agitation which was mainly the result of scientific investigation has affected the milk and butter industry more than any other food product. Milk which is highly susceptible to disease germs of the most dangerous type, has been one of the principal objects of investigation.

There are now required by the state and city, licenses for selling milk. This milk must be tested and found to contain a certain percent of butter fat. Cream must register 18 per cent while milk must contain 3 per cent.

In former days the farmer would save the milk for a couple of days until the cream has risen to the top, this was then skimmed and put in jars some times in a filthy kitchen and others in a cream cellar where the air was damp and the rays of the sun were never allowed to penetrate. The cream was then taken to the creamery, where it was tested and the farmer received his pay at the rate of so much per pound for butter fat. At other times the tiller of the soil would take his milk in large cans a whole wagon load at a time, and when cream was taken from the milk, he was paid for that alone. The skim milk was poured into a huge tank and when he went home he would usually take along several barrels of the milk which was absolutely unfit for any use except to swirl the pigs.

Things are Changed

Now it is different. Nearly every farmer has a large or small cream separator, depending upon the size of his herd. When he is through milking, and some of the more up-to-date farms have patent milking machines, the milk is poured into the separator and the cream taken from the milk. The cream which contains the per cent of butter fat that he desires, for it can be adjusted to turn out 18 percent or 30 per cent, is put in air tight cans to await the coming of the cream man who makes the rounds in a wagon, collecting from his regular customers. When the output is real large the farmer takes his produce to the creamery himself and receives his money.

Big Saving

The real saving comes in the skim milk. This with the animal heat still left is an excellent food for calves and swine. Besides, it is thoroughly cleansed of all dirt and hair, as is also the cream.

Separator Important Factor

A visit to the cream separator factory of Starch brothers revealed many things regarding the principal of the separator which has sprung into such universal use in the last 10 years. The principal upon which the separator is operated is that of contrifugal force. The cream being lighter comes to the center and the milk goes to the outer part of the cup which is revolved at the rate of 9,500 revolutions per minute. By a series of inner cups the cream is taken from the top and the milk is released through holes near the edges. By regulating the size of these holes the quality of the cream can be changed.

Growth of Factory

Starch brothers factory which employs as high as 40 men is about eight years old and is the only one in the Northwest, there being one at Waterloo, Ia., and one at Milwaukee. The separators which are nearly all of the hand variety are from 150 lbs. to 1000 lbs. capacity. With the present force the factory turns out an average of six machines a day. These machines which require the finest and most expert workmanship sell for a price varying from $45 to $150 a piece.

The speed at which the cup revolves requires expert work and it must be evenly balanced or it would be almost impossible to turn it by hand.

The increasing demand for this wonderful piece of machinery has naturally given rise to keen competition but as yet the past leads in the industry. The De Laval company of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and the United States Separator company at Bellows Falls, Vermont are the largest producers.

The La Crosse Bridge and Steel company which makes a specialty of manufacturing steel bridges of all kinds. At present it has contracts in Winona, Vernon and La Crosse counties, amounting to many thousands of dollars. The contracts in Winona county alone amount to about $7,000. A bridge in Vernon county costing about $750, is now in course of construction, a crew of men employed by the concern having been at work on the structure for about three months. The firm in this city sends out local men to do their work thus creating a demand here for skilled bridge labor.

August Miller who manufactures brooms of every variety and description is shipping large orders at present from this city to all parts of the United States. A force of about twenty men are employed at the factory each one of whom is a skilled laborer in his special branch of the broom manufacturing industry. At the present time the firm has all the business it can successfully handle, the men working a full day. Many people of La Crosse do not know that the brooms which are used daily in their homes are made right here in the city.

The La Crosse Brush company reports an ever increasing demand for their products. All sorts of brushes both straw and hair, are manufactured by this concern. At the present time the factory is located in a small building on the North side and the manager states that if the business continues to increase, new quarters and machinery will have to be installed as the present factory is inadequate for the increasing trade.

The Cornice and Ceiling company reports that business is picking up and that they are having trouble getting skilled men enough to supply the demand made upon them.

President Will Ott, of the Segelke-Kohlhaus company, now reports the Kuhn plant in full operation. While the full crew has not as yet been secured, additions are expected in a few days, at which time the plant will be running full capacity.

With the advent of warm weather, the demand for ice cream naturally increases. The Ice Cream & Butter company reports a considerable increase in business, and the plant is running to nearly capacity. Besides the large city trade which the company enjoys, they have also a large out of town trade, their territory extending through southeastern Minnesota, northeastern Iowa and western Wisconsin.

Hilliker and Riley, the new contracting firm has started the manufacture of screen doors, and window screens in connection with their other business on North Third street. This firm has several large contracts which are being handled here this spring.

The Smith Manufacturing company is daily receiving shipments of hard wood wagon stock to replace that which was destroyed by fire ten days ago. Owing to the fact that their dry sheds escaped the conflagration, the Smith Brothers have been able to keep the shop running on full time without a shut down.

Work at the La Crosse Rubber Mills at Indian hill is progressing merrily and the concern is working on full time and a full force. Fall and winter goods are being manufactured, and there is a greater demand for the product of this concern than the factory is able to turn out.

Despite the fact that the present weather would indicate that heating stoves will never again be required in this climate, the Summit Stove works on Indian Hill is running overtime making heating stoves for next winter. Summit kitchen ranges are also being manufactured, and the company's salesmen are getting more orders this year than last.

The trouble between Egid Hackner and the residents in the eastern part of the city, concerning the laying of a spur track from the Green Bay tracks to the proposed site of the new Hackner Altar works, has been practically settled, and the new factory will be erected as proposed. The railroad company has offered to place the spur track when required.

"America's Greatest Railway System"

Bitter Root Valley, Montana,

THE LAND OF OPPORTUNITY.

There is probably no section of this marvelous country of ours to which the above description applies with more directness than to the famous Bitter Root Valley of Montana, the largest and most easterly in the celebrated Pacific fruit region. Touching on the west side the stately main range of the Bitter Root Mountains, it extends on the east to the secondary range of the Hellgate Mountains, affording as can readily be imagined the finest sort of shelter and protection from heavy winds and rough weather.

THE GARDEN SPOT OF THE WEST.

The Valley itself affords a rich panorama of striking well-nigh indescribable beauty. Up and down its sides range the well-tilled ranches, extending over the foothills to the pine-clad and snow-capped mountains, and giving right and strength to the title, "The Garden Spot of the West."

as the statement may seem.

The Home of Opportunity.

All these things go to emphasize the right of the Bitter Root Valley to the title "The Home of Opportunity." The lessons of the past should not be lost on the prospective investors of the present day. All other Pacific fruit regions are of limited area, entirely occupied or held at prices that make them out of the reach of the man of ordinary means. Yet with the rapidly increasing population of this country, out of all proportion to the apple producing capacity of the cultivated area, there can be no possible danger of an over production of this most universal fruit. It is a further fact that the foreign demand for choice American fruit is increasing yearly out fording in this beautiful valley. Every mountain torrent, many irrigation ditches and the Bitter Root River abound with one of the gamiest and most palatable fish in the world—the native Rocky Mountain trout, known as the "Red Throat." In addition there are the native char of the salmon family, the white fish and the eastern brook trout, all of which rise to the fly and are the delight of fishermen.

As for hunting, the numerous mountain areas on all sides of the Valley contain every example of large game known to the Rocky Mountains, including deer, elk, moose, mountain goat, mountain sheep, grizzly bears, the more common varieties of bear, lynx, mountain lion, as well as all the small beasts of the forest. It is one of two "Big Game" regions in the United States home in a delightful climate, near unexcelled fishing and only about 25 miles from the best big game country left. In addition to these advantages they have homes that will pay them handsome profits on their investments.

One of the tracts in this valley which was sold recently went almost exclusively to college men, among the presidents of several well known universities. Former Governor Van Sant, Judge Sanborn, of the Circuit Court of Appeals in St. Paul, and several other prominent citizens of Minnesota were also among the first purchasers.

The fact that all ranches are small brings the homes close together and increases the possibilities for pleasant social relations with the cultivated and exceedingly interesting class of people one will have for neighbors.

Increasing Land Values.

The Bitter Root Valley was settled in the early sixties and has had a steady, rapid growth, especially after it was found to be wonderfully well adapted for fruit growing. The late Marcus Daly brought it first to the attention of the world by establishing his own home here and developing a 28,000-acre farm for blooded stock.

For a dozen years or more it has been known throughout the West as the most beautiful and rich of western valleys and ranks in government reports and elsewhere as a veritable garden spot.

Until recently outside capital was never introduced, so that the growth and development of the Valley was comparatively slow in the hands of a contented farm community; but within the past two years or over, two million dollars have been spent in one great irrigation project now nearing completion, and others are under way. A charter has been granted and work will be started in the spring on an interurban electric line running from Missoula to Anaconda, the entire length of the Valley. As this enterprise is backed by Senator Clark, the Copper King, its success is assured. A beet sugar factory and canneries are planned to be built this year. Moreover the prices paid for Bitter Root fruit have steadily increased. The effect of these influences has been to more thoroughly awaken the residents of the Valley to the remarkable advantages they possess, and good land with a good water right has more than doubled in price in the past 18 months.

Charles Heights Orchards.

A strip of "home land" on the western side of the Bitter Root River, known as Charles Heights Orchards, has recently been purchased and placed on the market by the O. W. Kerr Co. of Minneapolis. A very attractive proposition is offered both to those who wish to develop their own orchards and those who prefer to have this done for them by responsible people.

Full particulars can be secured by calling or writing to the O. W. Kerr Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

where Rocky Mountain sheep are still to be found. Deer are very numerous and are increasing under the favorable laws of the state. Ernest Thompson Seton's famous story "Wahb" is of a Bitter Root grizzly. In general the Valley has been the mecca of both hunters and fishermen.

Buying for Summer Homes.

In addition to the few remaining sturdy pioneer settlers in the Valley and the more recent arrivals who are making this their permanent home, there has been a large number of nationally prominent men who have bought 10 acres and upwards with the idea of making this their summer home, where a comparatively small investment would give them a comfortable

Type of 5-year-old "McIntosh Red" Apple Tree in the Bitter Root Valley.

of all proportion to the supply. What better field for a sure investment can be found than in preparing to meet this growing demand? And what better opportunity than in this Bitter Root Valley, about the productiveness of which 30 years of successful fruit raising leaves no room for doubt?

And when you couple with these material advantages the ideal climate, the beautiful environment, the high class of settlers already located, the nearness to the market—where can a better investment be found?

Pleasures of the Bitter Root.

Coupled with the advantages and opportunities above set forth, are the varied pleasures of outdoor life af-

Past the Experimental Stage. The Bitter Root Valley was settled nearly fifty years ago and for thirty years successful growing of fruit has been its strongest claim to popular regard. The experimental stage was long since passed and all that one needs to do is to look into the crop records of past years to be fully convinced what the possibilities are. The valley proper is about 80 miles in length, with an average width of eight miles, and lies mainly within Ravalli county, Montana. The present population is about 15,000, divided between the fruit raising and farming acres and the several prosperous towns of the county, chief among which is Hamilton, the county seat, with some 3,000 people. The picturesque environments of the valley add to its delights as a place of residence, with wild and rugged canyons on either side, through which course torrents and precipitous falls, equal in beauty to those of any portion of the country.

Unequaled Inducements.

Given these natural advantages of location of beauty and of resources, the Bitter Root Valley certainly holds out inducements that can be equalled nowhere else in the fruit raising belt of this country. For more than 30 years, as above stated, fruit has been successfully raised, affording a most satisfactory test of conditions, for while the average apple tree lives for at least 25 years, it becomes really profitable after the fifth year, and reaches its maximum of production at 20 years. It will be readily seen, therefore, that the experimental stage in this region has long since been passed, although only with the development of latter day methods of cultivation and protection of the trees have the largest possibilities been discovered.

Opportunities Overlooked.

At every stage of the world's progress, the conservative portion of humanity looks backward at the opportunities that have been passed by and feels a natural disappointment on realizing that they may never return again. The history of the development of the newer West is filled with just such opportunities, appreciated and taken advantage of by the few but overlooked by all too many. Many a man of the present generation can recall when land or real estate might have been bought in the vicinity of or within the limits of either Chicago or the Twin Cities at a figure that would have spelled a fortune for him had he possessed the foresight to invest. Take the recent history of the Dakotas for a nearer illustration, where a few years ago farm lands could have been had for from $5 to $15 an acre that are now out of the market at $25 and $50. Less than sixteen years ago irrigated fruit lands in the Wenatchee and Yakima Valleys, now selling for from $500 to $3,500 an acre could have been bought from 50c to $1.00 an acre, incredible

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

ARBOGAST WOMEN BOTH INDICTED

Believed that Mother of Girl Is Murderess and Later Attempted Suicide—To Air Family Troubles

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 5.—The Grand Jury has returned indictments against both Arbogast women, Louise Arbogast, the daughter, of the murdered man was indicted on a charge of murder, and may be brought into court today. The Grand Jury returned a secret indictment against the mother, but it is known that it charges her with murder in the first degree. It is now stated here that Mrs. Arbogast killed her husband and then attempted suicide and that the young woman is guiltless except in so far as she is trying to shield her mother.

It is also said that when Mrs. Arbogast is tried she will claim her act was justifiable homicide, committed in a fit of frenzy when she discovered conditions in her household that for a moment robbed her of reason.

CLARK IS LOGICAL DEM. NOMINEE

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 5.—Champ Clark for president in 1912! A canvass among the leading democrats now in Washington reveals that the minority leader of the house is one of those being discussed as available presidential material.

Clark's wholesome stand on tariff revision, his public record, personality, experience; his popularity with Bryan as well as Bryan's enemies within the party; his close association with the people as a result of having lectured in nearly every congressional district in the United States, are points urged by the Missouriian's friends as reasons why he is the logical candidate for standard bearer of democracy in the next presidential election.

Clark in the Public Eye. Mention of Clark at this time, however, is probably due to the great publicity given the recent fight of the democrats to overthrow Cannon and the objectionable house rules, particularly in Collier's Weekly, Everybody's and Success magazines. The accounts of this fight as printed in the periodicals mentioned gave Clark considerable praise because of his attitude in the contest.

When the republican insurgents met and decided to out Cannon and the Cannon rules if possible, they doubted very much if the democrats would add them. "Cannon will do the democrats more good as speaker than if he is not speaker," theorized the insurgents. "If Cannon holds the speakership it will in all probability defeat the republican party in the congressional elections of 1910. Therefore the democrats will not assist us to dethrone Cannon."

However, a committee of the insurgents, headed by John M. Nelson of Wisconsin, decided to lay the matter squarely before Clark.

"Mr. Clark," said Nelson, "we fully realize that it is to the interest of the democratic party to have Cannon and the old rules retained. Are you willing to lay aside this opportunity to gain political capital for the good of the cause of the people in general?"

"I am," said Clark. "I will do my best to get every democratic member in line."

Enthusiastic for Clark. Since that day Clark has been sized up carefully by leading democrats, and the deeper they investigate his qualifications the more enthusiastic they become in their conviction that he will receive consideration for the nomination. Today Clark's fitness is being urged very quietly by men who have been impressed by his conduct as leader in the house. Some day within the next year or two a full-fledged "Champ Clark boom" is certain to be chronicled in dispatches from Washington.

Twice the Clark enthusiasm has broken out in public. At a caucus of the house democrats during the fight on the Cannon rules Ollie M. Jamps of Kentucky declared that "if we democrats stick together on this proposition, we can nominate Champ Clark for president." Some time later Representative J. C. Cantrill nominated the minority leader on the floor of the house.

No concerted effort will be made by Clark's friends to advance his interests toward the goal mentioned until following the congressional elections of 1910, which even in the opinion of some republicans are likely to send a democratic majority to the house and elevate Clark to the speakership.

Editor's Note—Champ Clark is a feature attraction at our Chautauqua this summer, delivering his famous address on the subject "Picturesque Public Men." Permit the editor to suggest that special preparations be made to entertain a large crowd on Champ Clark day.

What is a Possimist

To be called a possimist is the greatest compliment it is possible to bestow upon any person. One does not have to be familiar with the delicate dish recently made famous by the president to be a possimist. In fact, in spite of the great similarity in name to the possum of the south it has only a slight connection with this far-famed animal. As a matter of fact the word is derived from a cross between an optimist and a pessimist and implies a combination of the best in both.

The true possimist neither favors the extreme and frequently unbalanced views of the optimist nor the dispiriting views of the pessimist but is a person of common sense, with sufficient humor to see the pleasant side of life but not allowing this to carry him off his feet and prejudice his good judgment. In the popular vernacular it has come to have a secondary meaning, which is on account of its similarity to the name of the possum, and indicates capacity not only for eating, but for work and for appreciation of the good things of the world.

Possimist has not as yet found its way into the dictionary, but no doubt the 1910 revision will add this new word to the English language and the originator will have bestowed an enduring monument to himself beside helping out those who wish to pay a new and unusual compliment to their friends.

GREAT PLAYERS IN CLASSIC

Russian Orchestra Will Furnish Music for Big Event Which Comes Near Season End

More than eighty years ago a young German lad, whose genius as a composer, was already beginning to be recognized, sat with his sister in a beautiful old garden and read "A Midsummer Night's Dream," the most fascinating, fanciful work of the greatest poet the world ever seen. The sensitive nature, the fanciful imagination of the lad was aroused by the fairy story and the delicacy of the verse and then and there he planned to put the story into music. He began at once and in a few months had completed the overture for his work, writing his music there in the old garden among the flowers and the trees and the shrubs, the beauty of the flowers, their fragrance and the songs of the birds all finding reproductions in the music written among them. When he was seventeen years old the lad first played this overture on a piano placed in the big old summer house in the garden. And it was with this overture that Felix Mendelssohn, Bartholdy took his place among the great musical geniuses of his day.

There is no one today with even the most superficial knowledge of music who does not know this overture, in many ways the most fascinating and wonderful work of Mendelssohn's genius. Scores of musical critics and writers hold to this day that the overture to "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was the composer's greatest work. Certain it is that nothing he ever did held the charm for the simple lover of music that this overture does. It was this, and the subsequently written incidental numbers for the play, that caused the critics and writers to rank Mendelssohn with Mozart, Bach and Handel.

It was not until 1843 that, at the request of the king of Prussia, Mendelssohn completed the work begun as a boy. Then he wrote the twelve incidental numbers that Shakespeare's comedy had inspired in the boy. It was then that he wrote the fairy dances, the scherzo, breathing of fairland, the intermezzo which, with its agitation, restlessness but yet its daintiness, accompanies the sad quest of Helena for Demetrius and her meeting with Lysander with its magical results. The well known Nocturne, one of the gems of the composition, describing as it does the spirit of the woods and including Titania's slumbers. Its exquisite horn passages and genuine feeling of the forest marks it as one of the triumphs of the composer. Here also occurs the famous wedding march whose brilliant and stirring rhythm and festive passages have come to be a part of almost every wedding ceremony. These well known numbers are interspersed with others, less well known but equally brilliant, which has never been made for a play.

It was before the king and court at Potsdam in 1843 that the completed music was first given, accompanying a performance of the Shakespeare play, the composer himself directing the orchestra. It is doubtful if ever since that time, until the present year, the music has thus been given. It has on occasions been played between the acts to the play but it has not been used as an actual accompaniment to the action since that time until this year, the Mendelssohn centenary. On the one hundredth anniversary of Mendelssohn's birth it was thus presented by the Ben Greet players and the famous Russian Symphony orchestra, one of America's famous orchestras. Since that time the players and the orchestra have traveled across the continent together giving "A Midsummer Night's Dream" in various large cities, the first time in the history of music or the drama that a complete dramatic company and a full symphony orchestra have ever made a joint tour.

The orchestra is under the direction of Modest Altschuler, who organized it six years ago, and is today ranked as one of the best leaders in America. The players will be seen under the personal direction of Ben Greet, who will himself be seen in his famous character of Bottom, perhaps the best characterization this famous Shakespearean actor has ever given.

Following Mendelssohn's idea the play will be presented without intermission and without the fall of the curtain to divide it into acts. This continuity of action is necessary to maintain the poetic illusion of the work and the sustained beauty of the music. The setting is exceedingly simple but was designed and executed by Troy and Margaret Kiny whose names are well known in the realms of art. It is designed only to give a suggestion of the forest glade in which the action of the play takes place and enhances rather than detracts from the play as a whole.

IBSEN PLAY HERE
TWO PERFORMANCES

Henrik Ibsen, the greatest Norwegian dramatist, and one of the most notable dramatic writers of the present century never wrote anything quite so fascinating and quite so absorbing as "A Doll's House" which Miss Hortense Neilson and her company will offer at La Crosse theater tomorrow, matinee and night. It is a play that holds the interest and attention as in a vise from the rising of the curtain to the finale. It abounds in tense situations; in thrilling climaxes, and in brilliant dialogue. It is a triumph of stage construction, and its literary beauty is surpassingly great. Miss Neilson who essays the role of Nora, gives it a fine and careful delineation, and her acting of the part is flawless.

YOUNG MEN WANTED

Manufacturers and Wholesalers the Country Over Want Men at Calaries Ranging from $2,000 to $10,000.

Traveling salesmen earn from $2,000 to $10,000 a year and expenses, and with the return of property thousands are in demand.

The Bradstreet System has successfully trained thousands of young men by mail in salesmanship, and the president makes this announcement to the readers of The Tribune. He says: "I will teach you salesmanship at your home in six weeks, and secure you a position as a traveling salesman with a reliable firm. I have written a book which tells how easy it is for any young man with ambition to succeed as a salesman. This book I will gladly send you free." Write for it today, to the President Bradstreet System, 207 Cornwall Bldg., Rochester, N. Y.

Heroic Work of Clarence Thompson May Be Rewarded With Medal From Carnegie

Clarence Thompson, a 15 year-old lad, living at 519 King street, made a daring rescue of Charles Kendall from drowning at the city bath yesterday and as a result he may receive a Carnegie Hero Medal.

Thompson is 15 years old and cannot swim a stroke yet when he saw young Kendall going down the last time, after being overcome with cramps, he boldly plunged to the rescue in a heroic manner disregarding all thought of himself.

Gus Lehman and a man named Murphy were standing on the bridge when Kendall went down and they hastened to his rescue. When Thompson came up clutching the hair of the drowning man they shoved him an oar and he grabbed it in time to save himself from going under. The drowning man was quickly pulled ashore and after working on him for nearly a half hour he showed signs of life. A few minutes more and he was able to stand up and in a husky voice thanked young Thompson for his brave rescue.

Kendall comes from Tomah, Wis. and stays at the Burlington hotel.
